LEGAL HISTORY:

On March 28, 2003, the above-named was sentenced to 84 months custody in the Bureau of Prisons to be followed by a term of Supervised Release for a period of 96 months, which commenced on November 1, 2005, in the Northern District of California. Special conditions included: Warrantless search; Financial disclosure; Drug/alcohol treatment program/testing; Co-payment for treatment/testing; Abstain from alcohol and alcohol restrictions; and Register as a drug offender. On March 7, 2006, supervision was transferred to the District of Nevada. Since December, 2008, he has been supervised on a courtesy basis by the Southern District of California Probation Office.

SUMMARY OF COMPLIANCE:

His last transfer back to California was to receive medical treatment at UCLA for cirrhosis of the liver and gallbladder complications, both of which are very serious medical issues. He has complied with all conditions and special conditions of Supervised Release, and has not been involved in any further criminal activities. It is the opinion of the probation officer that Mr. Peterson has derived maximum benefit from supervision and is not in need of continued supervision.
